

Please do not rewrite regulations making it easier for entities to own even more media than currently allowed. I believe it serves democratic processes better for the public to have a more, rather than less, varied source of news and entertainment. Thank you for your attention to this matter.